

June 2021 MTNA Newsletter

Our monthly newsletter offers information about civic issues, and has some overlap with the conversations that happen at our monthly community meeting.

Community News

Reality TV? – MTNA was contacted recently by someone representing themselves as a casting agent for a reality TV show looking for families in our area with teens, who happen to be house shopping. We have no way of verifying if this is legitimate. But if you want to do your own research, and would like the casting agent’s contact info here it is: gina@crybaby-media.com and bmccue@glassentertainmentgroup.com.

Development notice for 6401 E Burnside – There isn’t a required meeting for this project, but here are the preliminary plans sent to MTNA by the developer: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1qKVWy4-KOILTncGziezLIS6zG5NCKJlt/view?usp=sharing>

Empty Reservoir 6 – Res 6 (the biggest reservoir, the one closest to SE 60th Ave) will likely be empty from July - November of 2021.

The next meeting will be July 21 at 7pm, on Zoom – REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Civic Issues Updates

SOLVE pick-up Portland June 25 and 26. – Volunteer with SOLVE to help clean up Portland for a post-pandemic summer! This is SOLVE’s fifth annual “Pick it Up, Portland” event and the Mayor’s office is working with them to make it the biggest one yet.

Friday, June 25 will focus on cleanup events in business districts and Saturday, June 26 will focus on neighborhoods. There will be over 30 events between the two days; many are already up on SOLVE’s website and more are being added every day, at this link: <https://www.solveoregon.org/pick-it-up-portland>.

RIP rule changes – Rule changes are proposed to the Residential Infill Project’s affordability bonuses. See the draft changes here: <https://www.portland.gov/sites/default/files/2021/draft-dha-rules.pdf>
